

St Augustine's Priory

Independent Girls Catholic Day School in Ealing, West London

Visiting Music Teacher Clarinet and Saxophone

September Start

St Augustine's Priory wishes to appoint a Clarinet and Saxophone teacher for September 2018. The successful candidate will be an excellent communicator, enthusiastic about recruitment, and able to work with beginners through to more experienced musicians. They will be interested in developing the role of their specialised instrument within the wider Music Department. A music taster day is held annually in September for Students in several year groups to try instruments. The successful candidate is expected to attend this.

The post holder will be engaged on a self-employed basis and expected to be available for at least a full day per week, term time only. They will be responsible for creating their own timetable and teach weekly-rotating lessons of 30-minutes to their pupils.

The current post-holder is responsible for leading the Wind Ensemble, a small but dedicated group that performs at termly concerts and other events. It is expected the successful candidate will take over responsibility for this ensemble (paid for by the school).

Closing Date: Monday 13th August noon

Interviews are likely to be held Tuesday 14th August 2018 but this is subject to confirmation

An application form can be obtained from our website www.sapriory.com/vacancies

St Augustine's Priory is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all who work here to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure and other relevant checks.
