

14b - Missing Child Policy

This Policy includes EYFS children

Mission Statement

We are an all-through, inclusive Catholic girls' school, with boys in the nursery, committed to preparing girls for life long effectiveness and success. As part of their journey girls will learn of intellectual risk taking and emotional strength, reflection and self-knowledge, persuasiveness and team building as well as a cultural curiosity for an enriched enjoyment of life.

In our stunning 13 acres of grounds, girls have a physical freedom unique in central London. We aim to instil in them the emotional freedom to grow intellectually and spiritually and to understand the truth about themselves, others and our complex world. We will give them the courage to be ambitious and compassionate and we will provide a secure, happy and nurturing community in which to explore all of the above.

To this end we seek, develop and retain the best teachers who value well-being and the individual progress of each girl as much as they are relentless in their pursuit of academic excellence. Their goal is life-long success for each girl and they set the pace of energy and dynamism within which the girls flourish.

Children's safety is our highest priority at all times. Every attempt is made to ensure that the security of children is maintained at all times including when on school outings (see Educational Visits Policy and EYFS Outings Policy). Every care is taken to ensure that the children are accounted for at all times. All pupils are registered at the beginning of the morning and afternoon session. In EYFS and the Juniors when they are handed over to another member of staff they are supervised in line with recommended ratios for staffing. In the unlikely event of a child going missing, our missing child procedure is as follows:

Procedures

Reducing the risk of children going missing

- We ensure that our premises – both inside and outside – are safe and secure. We carry out termly risk assessments, daily checks of the learning environments.
- We ensure that gates and doors into the setting are secure and child-proof. We have keypad entry systems on doors to ensure that children cannot leave unsupervised and that visitors cannot enter unnoticed. Notices are displayed to reinforce security and the importance of closing gates where appropriate. Gates that are not in constant use are locked securely.
- Children are registered on arrival and signed in a late book if they arrive late. Children are registered again for afternoon sessions.
- All visitors are asked to sign Visitors' Book at main Reception and to wear a visitor's lanyard. Visitors are not left unsupervised with children.
- All members of staff wear a lanyard so that they can be identified as staff.
- Ratios are always maintained so that children are adequately supervised.

Child going missing on the premises

- As soon as it is noticed that a child is missing the key person/staff member calmly alerts the EYFS or other Teacher.
- The Teacher ensures that the remaining children are secure and supervised and the Missing Child Search Procedure is invoked. See Missing Child Search Procedure at the end of this policy.
- The register is checked to make sure no other child has also gone astray.
- Doors and gates are checked to see if there has been a breach of security whereby a child could wander out.
- If the child is found, the Senior Leadership Team and parents are informed and a Risk Assessment is carried out with the Senior Team to ensure that this does not happen again. This is taken to the Safeguarding Committee for approval if the child is not found.

- If the child is not found, the Senior Pastoral Leaders are informed and a thorough search of the grounds is undertaken with the assistance of the Operations Team and any other staff available. A description of the missing child is circulated (see sections at end of this policy). The school's walkie-talkies are used to confirm that all exits are closed. CCTV cameras are checked.
- A member of SLT will speak with staff to find out when and where the child was last seen and records this.
- Staff will remain calm and not allow other children to become worried or anxious.
- Ealing Safeguarding Children Board (ESCB) must be informed in writing of the incident and of the action taken as soon as reasonably practicable and always within 14 days of such an incident occurring.

The investigation (if the child is not found)

- If the child is not found the police are contacted and a missing child report is completed. The Police and the parents are contacted by the Headteacher who provides the Police with details of the child and the circumstances of their disappearance.
- The Headteacher speaks with the parent(s).
- The Headteacher carries out a full investigation taking written statements from all the staff present at the time of the incident.
 - The key person/staff member writes an incident report detailing:
 - The date and time of the incident.
 - Which staff/children were in the group and the name of the staff members designated responsible for the missing child.
 - When the child was last seen in the group.
 - What has taken place since the child went missing including conversations and Police advice.
 - The time it is estimated that the child went missing.
- A conclusion is drawn as to how the breach of security happened and a Risk Assessment is undertaken to avoid reoccurrence.
- If the incident warrants a Police investigation, all staff co-operate fully. In this case, the Police will handle all aspects of the investigation, including interviewing staff. Children's Social Services or Ealing Social Care may be involved if it seems likely that there is a Safeguarding issue to address.
- Where applicable, the incident is reported under RIDDOR arrangements (see the Reporting of Accidents and Incidents policy); the local authority Health and Safety Officer may want to investigate and will decide if there is a case for prosecution.
- In the event of disciplinary action needing to be taken, the relevant body would be informed in writing by the Headteacher, for example ISI and OFSTED as soon as reasonably practicable and always within 14 days.
- The insurance provider is informed.

Managing people

- Missing child incidents are a cause for concern for everyone. Part of managing the incident is to try to keep everyone as calm as possible.
- The staff will feel worried about the child, especially the key person or the designated carer responsible for the safety of that child.
- They may blame themselves and their feelings of anxiety and distress will rise as the length of time the child is missing increases.
- Staff may be the understandable target of parental anger and they may feel anxious. It is important to ensure that staff under investigation are not only fairly treated but receive support – such as being offered counselling – while feeling vulnerable.
- The parents will feel angry, and fraught. They may want to blame staff and may single out one staff member over others; they may direct their anger at staff. When dealing with a distraught and angry parent, there should always be two members of staff, one of whom should be a member of SLT. No matter how understandable the parent's anger may be, aggression or threats against staff are not tolerated, and the Police should be called.
- The other children are also sensitive to what is going on around them. They too may be worried. The remaining staff caring for them need to be focussed on their needs and must not discuss the incident in front of them. They should answer children's questions honestly but also reassure them.

- In accordance with the severity of the final outcome, staff may need counselling and support. The Headteacher and Governing Body will use their discretion to decide what action to take.
- Staff must not discuss any missing child incident with the press without taking advice from the Headteacher.

NOTE THAT THE MAJOR INCIDENTS PLAN WILL COME INTO EFFECT IF THE CHILD IS NOT FOUND
