

Floyd Steadman

Governor

Floyd Steadman was part of the St. Augustine's Education Committee before being invited to join the board of Governors in 2015. His recent retirement from the Executive Head role at Clifton Lodge brings to a close 23 years of senior leadership in private education. Floyd has been Headmaster of four Prep schools in the London area and has a wealth of knowledge in this age group. He was also a senior leader at St. Paul's Prep and Mill Hill Prep schools. As an experienced Cognita Head, Floyd has also been involved in mentoring staff and helping schools prepare for inspection.

He has had a lifelong passion for sport, especially rugby which he played to a high level. His rugby cv includes being captain of Saracens FC and Middlesex County RFU. He also played for the Barbarians and London Division.

Floyd has recently joined the board of Governors at Hampton School, and spends some of his time supporting two charities, Cancer Research UK and The Drive Forward Foundation.
