

Hemant Parmar

Chair of the Finance and Capital Projects Committee

Hemant joined the Board of Governors in 2016.

He was a Partner with the accountancy firm Grant Thornton until he retired in 2013. Hemant had been with them for more than 25 years. Prior to that he worked with other major firms in New Zealand.

Since retiring Hemant has been involved in charitable work and also mentoring individuals.

Hemant lives in Ealing with his wife who works with a Pharmaceutical company. They have two sons who went to St Benedict's School and who work in London pursuing careers in property and banking.