

Jacqueline Job

Jacqueline Job became a member of the Full Governing Body in 2022 having served as a co-opted member of the Academic Committee since 2020.

Jacqueline is a Headmistress of an independent all-through school in London. She has over 19 years of leadership and management experience in both state and independent schools. Among her qualifications, Jacqueline has a B.Sc. from Brunel University, a National Professional Qualification Headship from the Institute for Education and an MSc from Buckingham University. She brings her experience as a governor of another West London primary school to St Augustine's Priory.