

Margaret Bowler

Margaret joined the governing body in 2020.

Benefiting herself from a Catholic education Margaret is passionate about the power of education to develop, empower and support young people.

After gaining a degree in mathematics at Birmingham University, Margaret qualified as a chartered accountant and has over 40 years' experience at senior levels in major professional practices.

Her extensive business experience gained over a long, exciting and rewarding career includes: strategy, people development, risk management, data protection, and governance and compliance.

Having retired in 2019, she enjoys travel, skiing and sharing her skills and experience in various community and not for profit roles. She is currently chair of the audit committee of a national charity which aims to harness the power of sport to create positive change in the lives of disadvantaged young people across the UK.